the name of woman, while the former is a PERSONAL Hon. John Dowling, editor of the Terre Hante Journal, was in the city, and paid us a visit yesterday. Prosperity and good cheer were the conditions depicted upon his countenance and rotund person. The Journal was never more prosperous than at present. 16 Business on the street yesterday was very brisk. The ladies were out in full force attending to their shopping. None but vale-tudinarians or the sick and afflicted would stay in doors on such a day as yesterday. The weather offered special inducements to everybody to come out yesterday.

---AGENTS WANTED .- Active and industrious ents are wanted in every county and townifp in the State, to solicit subscriptions for the Weekly Herald, the largest, best and most widely circulated family newspaper in tne State. An agency for this purpose will prove, to all who desire to engage in it, an occupation at once honorable and lucrative. Parthes desiring to act as agents will address Hall & Hutchinsen, Proprietors Daily and Weekly Herald, Indianapolis, Ind.

---SUGGESTION .- In our travels over the city, we have observed that the bridge across the canal on New York street is sadly in need of repairs. The floor is full of large holes, caused by the fire that has dropped from the fire-eng- R. C. Gregory, Judge; Hon. Charles A. Ray, ines, which always stop at the bridge whenever there is a fire in that locality. The bridge should be repaired at an early day, and provision made against a recurrence of that to which we are calling attention.

---UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY .-The House of Mrs. Allison, No. 17 1-2 Virginia avenue, was entered by burgiars, at an early bour yesterday morning, and but for the timely discovery of the unhallowed purposes of the house-breakers, and the courageous manner in which Mrs. Allison showed them the door, her residence would have been depleted of many of its furnishings. Our citizens cannot be too careful in seeing that the doors and windows of their houses are securely fastened before retiring. The thieves are again on the

It seemed yesterday as if there would be no end to the robberies or attempted robberies that were reported. The latest that came to our knowledge is the following: On last Priday night a burglar effected an entrance into the saloon of Daniel Moneger, on Kentucky avenue, and robbed the money drawer of a considerable amount. He was arrested on the next_day by Officer William Sectney and lodged in jail, where he now is awaiting his preliminary trial, which comes up

INTERNAL REVENUE DECISION .- Commissioner Rollins has reversed and set aside the decision by which manufacturers of newspapers, bread, fumber and other articles enumerated in section 96 of the law as exempt from duty, have had to take out licenses as dealers according to the amount of sales, if they sold the articles of their respective manufactue. By the decision of Mr. Rollins, they will henceforth only have to take out a simple manufac-
